Re: Anderson v. AT&T Corp. et al., 07-cv-7974 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero:

We represent judgment creditors Ana Margarita Martinez and Gary Anderson in the above-referenced matter, which involves the turnover of a relatively small amount of money related to The Republic of Cuba. The parties are currently scheduled for an initial case management conference before Your Honor on April 11, 2008.

We are mindful that Section IV of your Individual Practices provides that "Appearances by telephone will not be permitted without express prior permission of the Court." The purpose of this letter is to respectfully request express prior permission to attend the status conference by telephone.

My partner, Joseph A. DeMaria, and I are the attorneys at my firm who are handling this case. While we are both members of the Southern District of New York Bar, we are both officed in Miami, Florida. Based on information that we have received from one of the garnishees, as of about one year ago, the amount of money at issue in this case was approximately $14,000 (and presumably is slightly higher today in light of continuously accruing interest). Given that we are attempting to conduct this proceeding as efficiently as possible and to conserve resources, we are respectfully requesting that we be permitted to attend the case management conference by telephone.

Hon. Victor Marrero

We have conferred with counsel for AT&T Corp., Cuban American Telephone and Telegraph Company, and JPMorgan Chase Bank (the only other parties to have appeared in this case), and they are agreeable to our request to participate by telephone.

Respectfully,

BRYAN T. WEST

Request DENIED. The Court deems it potentially more productive to the course of this litigation to meet with counsel appearing in person and examine the prospects of resolving this dispute more expeditiously and efficiently from the standpoint of judicial economy.
